MARY-LOUISE HENGESBAUGH

Founder & Chair of Girls' Health First

Mary-Louise Kurey Hengesbaugh served as the Respect Life Director for the Archdiocese of Chicago from 2003 to 2010, when she left that post to welcome her first adopted son, Ben. She and her husband, attorney Brian Hengesbaugh, subsequently adopted their second son, Thomas, and welcomed their daughter Elizabeth in 2017. Mary-Louise is the board chair of Illinois Citizens for Ethics, Political Action Committee, as well as founder and chair of Girls' Health First, her response to Illinois' extreme abortion law of 2019. As Miss Wisconsin, Mary-Louise spoke to more than 180,000 teens and young adults in 23 states about her platform, sexual abstinence until marriage, and wrote the book Standing with Courage on the topic.

Award

PASTOR CEASAR LEFLORE

The Henry Hyde Life Leadership Award is being presented to Pastor Caesar LeFlore. Pastor LeFlore is the founder and executive director of The Beloved Community Development Coalition, working for community transformation in the southeast suburbs of Chicago. He is a published author, and holds positions with several pro-life and pro-family ministries both here in Illinois and nationally, including Life Education and Research Network (LEARN), Illinois Family Institute, the Southland Coalition for Life, and 40 Days for Life. Pastor LeFlore served for 14 years as Associate Pastor of New Community Church.
